

What if . . . Preparation for all of these - and others you think of!

All contributions from the group are below.

You arrive at the start -> and discover that the loose control descriptions were at Registration, 30 minutes away (and yet the final information had said they would be at the start)?

You lose your dibber / brikke at the start?

You arrive on the wrong day / place?

You arrive at the wrong start?

Your child throws a major wobbly and won't get out of the car?

Going to the event. X is driving, you fall asleep. You wake up, on the wrong road, heading far in the wrong direction . . . .

In the -2 box you discover you have no compass?

On arriving at the event you discover you have left your O shoes at home?

You haven't put your O trousers on under your over-trousers?

Airline loses your bag?

Your shoe lace snaps?

You can't find the event?

Roadworks delay you?

Your brikke doesn't work at the start?

You can't find your car?
