Tour of Scotland - Jedburgh

Fit the Pieces

You need to plan a route from Mary Queen of Scots Towerhouse to the Jedburgh Castle Jail - however you first need to fit the pieces of the map back together (some of the pieces have been rotated).

Jedburgh lies on the Jed Water, close to the border with England. It has a number of historic buildings including the ruins of Jedburgh Abbey, Queen Mary's House and the Jedburgh Castle Jail.

Thanks to Roxburgh Reivers for the use of the map.
